Thomas Cecil represents individuals who have sustained life-altering personal injuries, and families who have suffered the wrongful death of a loved one due to the negligence or misconduct of others.

Biography

Thomas Cecil is not afraid to take on hard cases. He represents people who have been the victims of serious accidents and families that have suffered the wrongful death of a loved one due to the negligence or misconduct of others.

Tom has been litigating personal injury, product liability, wrongful death, and insurance claims for almost 30 years. His vast legal experience gives him the ability to negotiate higher payouts for his clients to help them deal with medical bills, loss of income, pain and suffering, as well as future medical expenses, future loss of earnings, and additional lifetime damages.

Tom is committed to hiring qualified experts in brain injury, spinal injury, orthopedics, neurology, neurosurgery, and neuropsychology to assist his clients in proving the severity of their injuries and obtaining the highest possible amount of compensation.

Tom has represented clients with catastrophic injuries that were caused by the negligence of others, including:

- Amputation
- Paralysis
- Serious Burns
- Traumatic Brain Injury
- Falls
- Wrongful Death

Tom has extensive experience in insurance law. He has successfully litigated numerous bad faith cases against the insurance industry for wrongfully denied claims.

Tom believes that everyone deserves access to justice, so he has devoted considerable time volunteering with the Immigration Legal Assistance Project and the Van Nuys Self Help Center, to assist those who otherwise cannot afford legal help.

Tom is a founding member of the Personal Injury Power Lawyers and a member of the State Bar of California. He is admitted to practice law before the United States Supreme Court and the United States District Courts for the Central, Southern, Northern and Eastern Districts of California. He is also a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association, the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the San Fernando Valley Bar Association.

Tom graduated from the University of Southern California in 1978 with a Bachelor of Arts in History. He graduated from the University of Santa Clara with a Degree of Juris Doctor in 1983.
